

Thomas Jefferson said something about a free AND diversified press being a safeguard of democracy. Please tells us why you think this is no longer important?